Project type:
Construction of self build new shelters for refugees
Community mobilisation,
Disaster mitigation.

Disaster:
Ifo refugee camp flood response, Dadaab, Kenya 2007

Number of households displaced:
Approximately 6,000 households displaced within the camps, mostly from Ifo camp
(note the camps contain refugees mainly displaced from Somalia)

Project target population:
500 households in Ifo camp

Occupancy rate on handover:
100% based on visual assessment

Shelter size
18m² (6m x 3m)

Summary
A combination of shelter upgrading and emergency response funding assisted 500 families were to make bricks and build shelters. The project was implemented through a community-based construction program following flooding in a large refugee camp.